FACULTY SENATE BILL 2021-A-XX

Approved by the Faculty Senate
DATE

BRIEF SUMMARY: This bill revises the existing procedures for the “Class Attendance Procedures” portion of the faculty handbook.

Revising Procedures for “Class Attendance”

BE IT RESOLVED THAT: Subject to the passage of this bill, the Procedures section of Chapter 3, Section C, Subsection 4 of the Faculty Handbook will be amended by replacing the existing content with the content below.

Faculty are encouraged to keep written records of course attendance. Faculty must be able to document the last date of a student’s activity in the course, as this information may be required by Student Financial Services or other offices in connection with students receiving certain types of federal funds.

A student who is absent from class during the first week of a course, or who has not logged into an online course, may be removed from the course through the online attendance verification process, unless notification by the student is provided to the course instructor by the end of the first week.

Students returning from active duty may petition instructors to start a course up to two weeks after the beginning of a 16-week course, or one week for an 8-week course. Due to the compressed nature of 6-week and 4-week terms, late-start petitions for such classes will not be considered if more than two class sessions must be missed. The request for a late start must be submitted to instructors no later than one week prior to start of the affected term.

1. Student must submit verification of the return date to instructors via a copy of their official military/reservation orders or their Discharge from Active Duty Paperwork (DD214). Instructors may contact the OMVS for assistance interpreting any documentation provided by the student.
2. Instructors, in consultation with their department chair, will determine whether a late start is feasible for their respective courses.
3. If approved, instructors will set up a written academic agreement with the student detailing the timeline of submission for any missed assignments, projects, or exams. Failure to adhere to this timeline will result in no credit being given for those items.
4. If a student’s return is delayed beyond the originally requested start date, the student should apply for a military withdrawal. Students should contact the OMVS for assistance with this process.

46 Students called to serve on Active Duty orders during a semester and who must leave any time
47 after the midpoint of the term may request one of the following options:
48

- 49
1. Continued enrollment: The student may complete the course early or, if deemed feasible by 50 the instructor, switch to an alternate course delivery mode. The instructor will establish an 51 academic agreement detailing the timeline for required or alternate assignments, projects,
52 and exams.
 2. Receive an Incomplete (I): Students may pursue an Incomplete with permission from the 53 instructor. Students will work with the instructor to compile a list of assignments, projects,
54 and exams needed to complete the course. Students will have up to one full 16-week
55 semester following the release from active duty to complete the course, or the incomplete
56 will revert to a failing grade. If the orders span into or beyond the full term subsequent to 57 that in which the incomplete is issued, the student may either request an extension of up to 58 one additional semester or file for a military withdrawal.
 3. Apply for military withdrawal: Students applying for a military withdrawal should contact
59 the OMVS for assistance with this process.
