

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Creative Writing Option

The Bachelor of Arts in Writing with an emphasis in Creative Writing allows students to gain knowledge about creative writing, professional communication, stylistics, rhetorical theory, publishing and text production.

Becoming Career Ready...

/ Students interact with qualified, published, award winning faculty in a small-class environment.

/ BA in Writing graduates gain skills necessary for a wide array of career paths, and work in publishing, communication, journalism and advertising fields. Examples of job titles include journalist, freelance writer, copywriter, technical writer, grant writer, publishing assistant and content manager.

/ Creative Writing students learn to write in many formats including professional reviews, creative writing, critical analysis and report writing.

/ Students in the major become part of a thriving writing community that holds regular readings of student work and readings by nationally known writers.

/ 100% of Southeast programs offer a real-world experience. BA in Writing students gain professional experience through access to English department resources, including Southeast's Journey student literary magazine, the Southeast Missouri State University Press, and the Center for Writing Excellence.

/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills in the field to jobs and opportunities in the field. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.
