Admission Requirements

In addition to the criteria established for general admission to graduate studies, applicants must have the following:

- Undergraduate GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale

International applicants must also have a minimum IELTS score of 7.0 OR TOEFL score of 95. This requirement is for non-United States citizens who are not native English speakers. Students from the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are exempt from English proficiency verification.

Probationary Admission

Probationary admission will be considered by the Office of Admissions if the applicant presents a GPA that is 2.5 to 2.74. The applicant must complete six hours of graduate level course work in the core area of study with a grade of 'B' or higher to continue in the program.

Appeals Process

Applicants who are denied admission can appeal to the College of Education, Health, and Human Studies Admission Appeals Committee, which is composed of one representative from each program offering a graduate program.

Graduation Requirement

Students must attain an overall GPA of 3.25 to graduate from the program.
