Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA)

RETENTION/GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM

Retention Requirements:

Students will be retained as BSBA degree majors providing the following retention criteria are met:

- 1. An overall cumulative GPA of 2.25.
- 2. A major GPA of 2.25.
- A grade of 'C' or better in the BSBA core and support courses with the following prefixes: AC, BA, BL, EC, FI, MG, MI, MK, and QM.

Dismissal from the BSBA degree program:

- BSBA students who complete any core or support courses with a grade of D or F will be notified in writing by the home department for the BSBA major that the course(s) must be completed with a grade of C or better by the end of the next long (fall or spring) semester or they will be placed on probation within the college.
 Exceptions can be granted with prior approval of the Dean of the college.
- If students do not complete the course(s) with a C or better on their next attempt, they will be placed on probation within the BSBA program and notified by the department.
- If students on probation within the college do not complete the course(s) with a C or better in the next long (fall or spring) semester, or by the extension granted by the dean, they will be dismissed from the BSBA degree program.

Students dismissed from the BSBA degree will be notified by the department. Students' advisors will be copied on all correspondence. Students may meet with the department chairperson to discuss the decision to dismiss the student from the BSBA degree. An official request for review of the decision must be received by the chairperson in writing within 10 business days of email notification of dismissal.

Graduation Requirements:

- 1. An overall cumulative GPA of 2.25.
- A major GPA of 2.25.
- 3. A grade of C or better in all BSBA core and support courses.

Fifty percent of the business hours counted toward a business degree must be taken at Southeast Missouri State University.
