Do you have the will to ENGAGE IN 8?

Fall 2019
First 8 Weeks
Activities Schedule
WELCOME to Southeast!

The University community enthusiastically welcomes you to Southeast Missouri State University! To assist in your transition to campus, the “Engage in 8!” program is designed to engage you in a wide array of opportunities. Whether it's attending a theatre production, playing intramurals, going to worship, or joining a student organization, take time to explore the variety of programs and events created with you in mind. “Engage in 8!” events have appeal for all students from first year to graduate, domestic and international, traditional and non-traditional. We want you to feel comfortable attending any event as you get to know and become a part of the Southeast community.

RESPONSIBLE REDHAWKS

Southeast is committed to promoting a community of Responsible Redhawks – a community that encourages a holistic, healthy environment. Programs that support this initiative are denoted throughout the publication. As with all events, we encourage you to try new experiences, meet new people, and become involved in your University. We look forward to seeing you on campus and participating in the opportunities it has to offer!

Diversity - Attend these events to enhance your education outside the classroom.
Free Food - Look for this icon to find events offering free refreshments, snacks, or meals.
Free Stuff - Check out these events for free T-shirts, novelties, giveaways, and other items.
Key Event - Key events are mandatory for all first-year students.
Responsible Redhawk - Attend these events to become more involved in your University.
Small Fee - This icon indicates there will be a small fee for students to enter or participate.

Spread the word! Get involved!

/ Jazz Studio Auditions, 2:30-4 p.m., River Campus, Cultural Arts Center 155
The department has two big bands, Studio Jazz Ensemble and the Jazz Lab Band. Studio Jazz Ensemble is open to any student regardless of major and is directed by Dr. Joseph L. Jefferson, director of jazz studies/assistant professor of trombone/euphonium. Students in the Studio Jazz Ensemble should have prior experience in a jazz program, woodwind-doubling skills (saxes only), and solo experience. This ensemble performs a variety of musical styles, including but not limited to, Jazz Standards, Latin, Blues, Ballads, and Funk. The Studio Jazz Ensemble is an auditioned ensemble that rehearses (MW 2:30-3:45 p.m.) The ensemble auditions consist of the prepared piece, sight-reading, and improvisation. Materials can be found at semo.edu/music/jazz-bands. Print your appropriate parts. Sign up for your audition time outside Dr. Jefferson’s office (RM556) in the Seminary building. The Jazz Lab Band is open to all students (no audition required) with an interest in improving their skills in big band jazz and improvisation. Improvisation skills are developed in this ensemble, although they are not required as a pre-requisite. For more information, contact Dr. Joseph L. Jefferson at jefferson@semo.edu
