

OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Office of Student Conduct is seeking an outstanding individual to serve as Graduate Assistant for the 2022 academic year (beginning Fall 2021). A job description and list of day to day responsibilities is included below. Ideally, applicants will have a knowledge of student affairs, experience living in campus housing, excellent communication skills, the ability to be assertive, and excellent organizational skills. First priority will be given to students from the Higher Education, Counseling and Master in Public Administration programs. Other related programs will be considered. Students do have to be officially admitted to a graduate program at Southeast to apply.

Interested individuals can send an e-mail to Dr. L. Randy Carter, Associate Dean of Students, at lrcarter@semo.edu. Information should include a resume/cv, cover letter and a list of three professional references. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

We encourage applications from diverse candidates of various backgrounds, races, genders and cultures. For budgetary reasons, we can only consider applications from international students who completed their undergraduate degree from Southeast.

Office of Student Conduct Graduate Assistant Job Description

The Office of Student Conduct (OSC) is responsible for enforcing the policies and regulations set forth in the University's Statement of Student rights and Code of Student Conduct. Specifically, the OSC Graduate Assistant is a graduate student who is employed in the Office of Student Development for approximately 20 hours a week, reporting directly to the Associate Dean of Students. He/she/they is responsible for conducting judicial conferences, and adjudicating cases as assigned by the Associate Dean. The OSC GA assesses charges and notifies students in writing of alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct and must be familiar with all facets of the judicial process. The OSC GA works very closely with the All University Judicial board, serving as the Board's advisor during hearings. The OSC GA also plays a key role in the selection, training, organization, and informal advising of the Board. He/she must also be a meticulous record keeper and be attentive to details. The individual assists in the maintenance of the judicial databases and collaborates with the Office of Residence Life for cases they adjudicate. Further, the OSC GA oversees the maintenance of the student discipline files for the Office. This individual will also represent the OSC at various campus and community presentations, trainings, and other outreach opportunities. Ideally, applicants for the position would have a strong educational approach, a knowledge of (or an interest in) counseling and conflict resolution, and strong interpersonal communication skills. This individual must be self-motivated, able to work independently, and have the ability to use fair judgment and strong decision-making skills.
