Juried by Bradley Phillips, professor - Art & Design

Bradley Phillips is a photographic artist and Professor of Photography & New Media. Born in the Greater Los Angeles area, he is currently living and working out of southeast Missouri. Having lived coast to coast, he received his BA in Photography at Brooks Institute in Santa Barbara California (2005) and earned an MFA in Visual Studies from the State University of New York at Buffalo (2012). He has exhibited nationally, in group shows internationally and his work has been featured on the covers of several books, literary journals and magazines. His artwork currently focuses on photography as material in opposition to medium.
