CENTERS FOR ACADEMIC ADVISING & CAREER SERVICES

The primary mission of the centers for Academic Advising and Career Services is to assist students at important points throughout their academic careers at Southeast. The Centers help students identify and use available campus resources to meet personal, academic, and career goals. Services in this unit fall into three main categories:

Academic Advising: Academic advising is provided for students with majors in the Colleges of Education, Health & Human Services, Liberal Arts and the School of University Studies in the Center for Academic Advising – South located in Academic Hall. Students with majors in the Harrison College of Business and the College of Science, Technology and Agriculture are advised in the Center for Academic Advising – North located in Seabaugh Polytechnic Building.

Academic advisors work with students as they progress through their academic programs. Academic advising is an intentional, collaborative relationship that promotes the student’s development of competence, autonomy, and sound decision making skills. As a result of academic advising experiences, students will:

1. Be more informed regarding university and college policies, procedures, and courses as they relate to their academic program.
2. Know the requirements of their academic program and develop/follow an academic plan by: a) interpreting their degree audit by using DegreeWorks, b) selecting appropriate elective courses which enhance their background and preparation, c) following appropriate registration procedures.
3. Generate appropriate questions and apply academic advice.
4. Select activities and opportunities that enhance professional growth and development.

Career Advising: Career counselors work with students in all majors at Southeast to assess career opportunities and select a career path and major that matches their interests and abilities. They provide quality career advising services to current students, alumni, faculty, and staff through individual appointments and group presentations including career proficiency checks, workshops, and other University presentations. Career counselors keep current in career and employment trends and work collaboratively within the Center for Academic Advising & Career Services making appropriate student referrals within the Center and to other resources across campus.

Career Services: Professionals in Career Services provide career assistance and support to students and alumni across all majors at Southeast. Services include computerized career exploration, resume/cover letter review, job search and interviewing assistance, mock interviews, a career resources library, and trained personnel to respond to career-related inquiries. Career Services provides information about career events and on-campus interviews, job postings, internship/practica opportunities, and much more. Staff professionals also work with academic program leaders on experiential learning programs, both locally and in the greater St. Louis area, to provide students coordinated and carefully planned pre-professional practice opportunities in their fields of study. Career Services also coordinates employment opportunities available to students, graduates, and alumni through an online career management system.

DEAN OF STUDENTS

The Dean of Students serves as a student advocate within the University community and to the general public. This advocacy includes providing individual support and guidance to students in need. The Office of the Dean of Students provides education to reduce the risk of drug and alcohol abuse and sexual violence among college students. The Statement of Student Rights and Code of Student Conduct is published and administered by the Office of the Dean of Students. Students are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students when they will be absent from class due to a substantial personal emergency. The Dean of Students Office will send a Temporarily Out of Class notice to faculty on behalf of the student. This does not serve as an excused absence from class nor does it excuse the student from the course requirements. Students will be responsible for following up with their faculty members to make arrangements for making up missed coursework. It is up to each individual faculty member to determine if missed work will be allowed to be “made up.” The Office of the Dean of Students can be reached by calling (573) 986-6888.

FINANCIAL AID

Student Financial Services offers a comprehensive program of financial assistance for students needing supplemental financial support for their educational expenses. To apply for federal, state and institutional need-based aid, a student must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA can be accessed on-line at www.fafsa.gov or you may request a paper FAFSA by calling 1-800-433-3243. In order to be considered for priority packaging, the FAFSA should be received by the processor by February 1. To meet this deadline, submit your FAFSA electronically by who is eligible for Federal Work Study. Students may complete the FAFSA through June 30 of the award year; however, this may result in limited aid eligibility.

Federal Grants. The Federal Pell Grant is the largest federal grant program available through the U.S. Department of Education. The FAFSA information is used to determine eligibility for the Federal Pell Grant. Eligibility is based on the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and enrollment status. The Student Aid Report will indicate initial eligibility. Award amounts are prorated for less than full-time enrollment. The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) is awarded to Pell Grant eligible students with a zero EFC. Awards and award amounts are determined annually based on the number of applicants who complete the FAFSA by the priority processing deadline.

Scholarships. The University offers an extensive scholarship program. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of financial need, academic achievement, artistic ability, athletic ability, college major, military commitment, community activities, geographic location or special interests. The admission application is used to determine academic merit scholarships for first-time freshmen and transfer students. Endowed scholarships require a separate application which is available online through the student portal under the Student SS tab. A link will be provided for AcademicWorks. Additional information regarding scholarships and deadlines is available through the Office of Admissions or Student Financial Services and online at http://www.semo.edu by selecting “Admissions” or “Current Students” and then “Student Financial Services” and then “Financial Aid.” The State of Missouri provides need-based and merit awards primarily through the Access Missouri Financial Award and Bright Flight program. To be considered for a State of Missouri need-based award, the FAFSA must be received by the Department of Education Processor by February 1.

Loans. Loan programs administered by the University are the Federal Perkins Loan, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loan for students, the William D Ford Federal Direct PLUS Loan for parents of undergraduate students, and the Federal Direct Grad Plus Loan. To apply for a loan, follow the instructions provided with the award letter.

Student Employment. Student employment opportunities are available to students, either as regular student employment (non-need based) or Federal Work Study (need-based requiring a processed FAFSA by February 1). The number of FAFSA applicants meeting the priority processing deadline and the EFC determines who is eligible for Federal Work Study. Students may work up to 20 hours a week and are paid minimum wage or higher. Students must complete a Work Referral Authorization Form and related documents available through Student Financial Services before beginning employment. Enrolled students interested in student employment can view job openings through the Career Linkages website www.semo.edu/careers.

Verification. Often, FAFSA records are selected to be verified by the Department of Education and the University. This process requires that the University collect documents (1040 tax transcripts, W-2 forms, worksheets, etc.) to verify data submitted on the FAFSA. A financial aid record is not considered complete and eligible for aid disbursement until verification has been completed and a revised student aid report is sent electronically to the University from the Department of Education. The last date verification forms or requested documentation will be accepted is the earlier of the last day of the semester or the student’s last documented date of attendance for the semester.

Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students must be maintaining satisfactory academic progress towards a degree in order to maintain continued eligibility for federal and Missouri state aid (in addition to any other state aid requirements). Satisfactory Academic Progress for financial aid purposes is reviewed after each semester including summer. Students are sent a warning notice after a semester for which they do not meet the satisfactory progress requirements. Students who fail to meet satisfactory progress for two consecutive semesters are suspended from financial aid. Students may appeal, in writing, to have financial aid reinstated. If reinstated, students are considered to be on probation during the term they are receiving aid. Failure to meet requirements for this probationary period will result in financial aid suspension. Satisfactory Academic Progress for financial aid purposes is measured differently than for academic purposes. A student may be allowed to continue to enroll in courses but without financial aid eligibility. This will require that the student pay out of pocket for educational expenses. The Satisfactory Academic Progress policy is available online at http://www.semo.edu/sfs/financialaid/progress.htm.

For further information, contact Student Financial Services by calling (573) 651-2253 or e-mailing sfs@semo.edu, or logging online at http://www.semo.edu and select “Current Students” and then “Student Financial Services” and then “Financial Aid.”

GRADUATE STUDIES

The primary purposes of graduate study are to provide opportunities for advanced study of an academic discipline and advanced preparation for a profession. Students are introduced to research and scholarship in their field of study and prepared for increasing competence in their profession.

Admission to the School of Graduate Studies is based on satisfactory academic performance on the undergraduate level as measured by the cumulative GPA, specific courses in the appropriate major, and academic scores on such tests as the Graduate Record Exam, TOEFL, or Graduate Management Admission Test. (See the Graduate Bulletin at www.semo.edu/gradschool for details.)

All requests for information or admission materials should be directed to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies, Southeast Missouri State University, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701.

The Graduate Conditional Admission Program (Grad CAP) is designed to prepare qualified students in graduate level research and communication skills in the English language. Students take one semester-long reading course and one writing course. Upon completion of the Grad CAP coursework with a grade of A or B, a student may enter the graduate school, and certain graduate programs, in lieu of satisfying a standardized language test requirement. Additional information is available at www.semo.edu/international/iep.

Kent Library is the academic heart of Southeast Missouri State University. The library currently houses over half a million print volumes, journals, magazines, newspapers, DVDs, video games, rare books and more. In addition to physical holdings, the collection also includes thousands of online journals, eBooks and streaming videos.

Best sellers, new books, magazines and newspapers are on the main floor, right next to the circulation desk. The third floor is home to a large student computer lab with a hundred computers. Kent Library’s large collection of books and government documents is located on the fourth floor.

Librarians work with departments across campus and help students learn information skills. Library faculty teach classes on how to effectively find and evaluate information. In addition to this instruction, students can get one-on-one research assistance, in person, over the phone, through an instant chat service, or by email from the Kent Library Reference Desk.

Kent Library is also home to other units that support a range of students’ interests and needs. The Heather MacDonald Greene Multimedia Center provides access to 3D modelling and printing, a one-button recording studio, Adobe Creative Suite software, video and audio production and editing, and offers expert assistance for students’ media creations. The Instructional Materials Center houses classroom resources and children’s materials, as well as video games, equipment, movies and audiobooks. Special Collections and Archives preserves and curates rare and unique, local artifacts and Kent Library works with the School of Visual and Performing Arts to provide access to library materials and services at the River Campus. The Arts Resource Center (ARC), located in the River Campus Seminary building, provides access to a variety of musical scores, a large collection of sound recordings, scripts, plays and books. Kent Library materials are easily available at the ARC, so students have access regardless of where they study.
