IV. Expectations of Students

To attend class regularly with few or no absences and participate fully in all class activities

To express a positive and professional attitude and consistent effort toward learning the class material

To arrive at least 5 minutes prior to the start of class in order to warm-up and ready your body and focus your mind for class, not sit passively and talk to one another! This is a good time to review material and corrections given from the previous class.

To develop and maintain evidence of improvement by applying both personal AND group corrections

To respect fellow students, the instructor and any guests

To remain open and willing to investigate new and often contrasting or conflicting ideas to what you may be accustomed

To thank the instructor and your fellow classmates after class for a job well done

To remain after class for a post-class stretch of the major muscle groups

V. Dress Code

Appropriate dance clothing is that which does not draw attention to itself, which allows the teacher to clearly see the body at work, and which shows that the dancer understands and has respect for the demeanor expected of those studying dance. Students are to adhere to the following regulations regarding proper attire for both men and women.

All: Bare feet

Women: Solid-colored leotard or tank top with proper bra support and leggings or dance pants that fall below the knee

Men: T-shirt or tank top and dance pants that fall below knee

Note 1: Hair should be pulled back away from the face and off the neck. No jewelry and no chewing gum.

Note 2: Dress/Appearance is a part of your course grade. If you wear inappropriate clothing, you will be told ONCE. After that, it will reflect negatively on your final course grade. This is a class geared towards the development of professionals. Please treat your appearance properly.

VI. Basis for Student Evaluation

Participation (30%)

Because this is a studio class, regular attendance is mandatory which consists of both physical and mental participation in the class. It is expected that you will be in class each and every time, on time, and stay for the full time. All of the work performed in this class is studio dependent and equivalent make-up assignments are not possible. Attendance is a necessity in order to satisfactorily complete your work and is vital to your growth and success in this class.

Class Work (40%)

Your grade for class work is based upon your regular attendance, your dress/appearance, and the bullet points listed below. Evaluation happens on a daily basis through the teacher/student interaction in the studio. Therefore, you should present yourself in a positive light and make sure you are visible to the teacher. Consistency is the key to continued technical and performance growth as a dancer and open communication is vital to the instructor's perception of your work. Individual and general corrections are the primary methods to direct and encourage your understanding of the materials. Grades will be based on the instructor's evaluation of the following criteria as applied to both level of attainment and rate of improvement.

- Physical ability to perform all class materials with kinesthetic and musical accuracy;
- The student's ability in terms of speed to assimilate new materials and concepts as well as clear evidence of that assimilation in executed movement;
- Perception and performance of the dynamics and stylistic aspects of the movement materials;
- Ability to communicate through dance;
- A demonstration of steady progression and refinement in both technique and performance skills;
- A demonstrated effort to bring the movement materials toward their full range and potential;
- A consistent contribution to class with fully engaged focus, effort and enthusiasm.

Movement Exams (20%)

Movement exams will be given twice during the semester; one at mid-term and one at the final. The final exam will take place on Wednesday, May 13 at 8am. Each exam will include movement combinations and material that has been learned in and worked on during previous class periods. Additional new material or challenges may be given during the exam time as well. Each exam will be evaluated on correct execution of the material based on the objectives of the course and overall presentation. There will be no make-up days for the movement exams. If a student is unable to perform on the day of the movement exam, they must write a 3-page typed assessment of their work so far in the course leading up to the exam and their thoughts on what they would have demonstrated had they been able to perform the movement. The written assessment is due on the day of the exam.

Journal (10%)

Students will receive credit by keeping a note book for the semester that will be used to record personal technical goals and accomplishments, in-class activities, music listening assignments, research on class material, personal AND group corrections given by the instructor, observations of other students, realizations from watching video of the movement exams, personal insights based on previous notes and perceived improvement and movement phrases learned during class. Each journal entry should be dated and there should be 25 total entries. Journals will be collected at final exam and will be graded based on the thoughtfulness and thoroughness of the entries.

NOTE: All students are required to attend Spring into Dance 2015 and Last Chance to Dance.

VII. Student Assessment

A grade of “A” will be awarded for work that the instructor deems to be outstanding in both matters of professional demeanor and in the demonstration of substantial progress in the areas outlined above.

A grade of “B” will be awarded for work that the instructor deems to be above average in accomplishment. This means that not only is the student diligent about his/her attendance and avoidance of tardiness but tangible progress with the requirements are clearly demonstrated in the areas outlined.

A grade of “C” will be awarded for work that the professor deems to be of average accomplishment. A “C” grade indicates that a student has demonstrated less progress than the class as a whole or has made no progress at all. A grade of “C” may also be awarded if a student's attendance has been unsteady, his/her participation unenthusiastic, or if s/he has demonstrated a continuing pattern of tardiness.

A grade of “D” will be awarded for work that the professor deems to be at a level measurably below the average.

A grade of “F” will be awarded for students who do not answer all of the course requirements, or performs inadequately, or both.

VIII. Course Outline

- Week 1: Introduction to the Course and the Non-Western Dance Style
- Week 2-5: Break down of basic warm-up exercises and technique
- Week 6-7: Continued work on basic technique, adding locomotion and weight shifts

- Week 8: Mid-term Movement Exam
