ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTERS

College Success and Financial Responsibility Seminars

Spring 2019 Schedule

Wednesdays from 12:00-1:00pm

The Importance of Soft Skills

1/23/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00 PM

Hard skills may get you the job, but soft skills will keep the job. This session you will learn what soft skills and why they are important to have. You will also take away tips on how to enrich your soft skills.

Dress for Success

2/6/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00 PM

This presentation will explore the mindset of professionals. Seminar participants will discuss the good, the bad, and the ugly of professional dress and ways that they can stand out in the business world.

Things to know before you graduate

2/20/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00PM

This seminar will include helpful tips to ensure you avoid costly mistakes which may affect your career and finances. Topics that will be covered include finances, student loans, interviewing, goal setting, and life skills. There will be a question and answer session designed to be very specific to your individual needs. We will uncover universal issues that are experienced by many students whom are transitioning from school to the workforce.

Be #Woke; Not #Broke

3/6/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00 PM

We all care about issues that are important to us; are your finances one? With a little knowledge and proper planning, you can avoid many of the typical strains of a 'broke college student'. Let's talk about getting free money (scholarships), preventing overdraft fees (budgeting), and how to fund college overall (financial aid). With half the energy we put into social media, you can be an expert at college finances! It's never too late to get #woke and stop being #broke

The Importance of Networking & Controlling your Online Presence

3/20/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00PM

Are you unsure about this thing called "Networking"? Does the idea of a future employer viewing your social media pages make you cringe? Come to this workshop to learn more about networking and how social media and online search tools are changing the job search process, and how you can create a positive professional online presence.

Writing for Success

04/3/19 UC Program Lounge

12:00-1:00PM

How to stand out and let your voice be heard through the written word. Impressions are vital to success in both the academic and professional world. However, most impressions are initially formed through some form of writing; email, text, tweet. This interactive presentation will look at the impressions our writing leaves on professors and potential employers (or anyone else).

How to maximize your time

4/17/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00PM

This seminar will review the importance of staying on task and organized during your college career. After discussing the importance of organizing personal and collegiate schedules students will be able to experiment with different styles of time management, goal setting, and prioritizing during this seminar. Students will leave this seminar with tools that can help them stay on task and organized throughout the semester, as well as, into their future endeavors

Finals Week Prep 101

5/1/19 UC Indian Room

12:00-1:00PM

This seminar will offer tips on how to prepare and pass end of the semester finals. A panel of Learning Assistants, SI Leaders and Faculty will discuss their own challenges and successes while studying for finals and answer questions from participants on how to best prepare for your upcoming finals.
