

Biology Seminar Schedule – Fall 2017

Seminars are Thursdays at 4pm in Magill 218, unless otherwise stated

Date	Presenter	Title
8/31	DR. JOSH ENNEN TN Aquarium Conservation Institute	Can Renewable Energy Developments and Wildlife Coexist?
9/14	DR. WALT LILLY SEMO	DNA to D&D: Cleaning up Magill Hall
9/28	DR. REBECCA KURZHALS SEMO	Telomere loss is not the end!
10/13 * FRIDAY* 3pm	DR. CHRIS MURRAY TN Tech University	The interface of natural population dynamics, endocrine-disrupting compounds & enigmatic disturbance: Understanding human-crocodile conflict in Costa Rica
10/26	DR. KURT NEUBIG SIU, Carbondale	The importance of hybridization in the evolution of plants
11/9	Dr. Jessica Hite U of Nebraska	How parasites shape their world: implications for sex, stage structure, stability, and evolution
11/30	DR. REBECCA JOHANSEN Austin Peay State U	The influences of life history & habitat fragmentation on genetic diversity & gene flow of benthic fishes.
12/7	DR. NANCY GARWOOD SIU, Carbondale	Plant reproduction in the equatorial ever-wet forests of the Ecuadorian Amazon: Pattern or Chaos?

Please come early for refreshments!