

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

History

The Bachelor of Arts Degree in History will increase your knowledge of history and develop your research, organizational, and written and oral communication skills. It also prepares students for advanced study in areas or careers such as history, law, or other related fields that could lead to careers in history, law, business or other related professions.

Faculty support the development of individual interests, through research and independent projects. They are well-prepared instructors and active scholars, encouraging students to explore history beyond the classroom. Professors have teaching and publication experience in a variety of fields, including United States history, Modern Europe, Latin America, Medieval history, the Middle East, and historic preservation. Many have national or international reputations, teaching awards, and recognitions from the university and broader community. Classes average 20 to 30 students, which allows for individual attention on research projects and experiential activities.

History students will...

- Master the methods of effective historical research and communication.
- Learn to read, critically evaluate and interpret primary and secondary historical sources.
- Understand and formulate historical arguments and interpretation.

Student Organizations Associated with History

History majors have many opportunities outside the classroom. The History Club and the Historic Preservation Club are open to all students who want to share their common love for the past.

The Alpha Epsilon chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, an international honor society in history, is one of the oldest in the nation.

The Epsilon chapter of Sigma Pi Kappa, the Historic Preservation honorary society, is the first undergraduate chapter in the country.

The Social Studies Educators' Association prepares students for teaching and other opportunities in education.

These organizations sponsor a variety of events including guest speakers, field trips to historic sites, professional events and academic conferences.

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

This is a guide based on the 2014-2015 Undergraduate Bulletin and is subject to change. The time it takes to earn a degree will vary based on several factors such as dual enrollment, remediation, and summer enrollment. Students will meet with an academic advisor each semester and use DegreeWorks to monitor their individual progress.
