

Economics: Business Economics Option

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA)

Business Economics Option

Economics is the study of how to evaluate problems and make critical decisions. Economics students learn to locate and use important data such as those found at the Bureau of Economic Analysis, the Bureau of the Census and the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Students use this information to develop a framework of analysis for solving "real-world" problems, conduct mathematical and statistical analysis and communicate.

Economics students will...

- Interact with qualified, award winning faculty in a small class environment.
- Study in Robert A. Dempster Hall, an efficient and beautiful business building with the feel of a corporate environment.
- Have access to more than 30 study-abroad programs offered with the Harrison College of Business.
- Have access to Southeast's Center for Economic and Business Research, which provides undergraduate students with experience conducting and publishing economics research. Operated by Southeast faculty and advised by professionals in the industry, the center conducts research, publishes a quarterly newsletter, and hosts meetings to promote economic development in Missouri. The center also performs economic research on a contract basis.
