

Associate of Arts (AA)

Associate of Arts in Child Care and Guidance

The study of child development encompasses the human life span from conception through adolescence.

In progress...

An academic background in child development (birth through adolescence) provides a foundation for your professional role in human service and education careers, which demands insightful communication, knowledgeable supervision, and realistic problem solving.

Working with children, families, and allied professionals in instructional, supervisory, and support capacities merits life-long learning. Completing this degree is an important step in your career achievements.

Child development students will...

- Interact one-on-one with highly qualified faculty in face-to-face and online classes.
- Acquire first-hand knowledge of child development in action through experiential learning with children and families in a variety of University and community settings.
- Apply child development knowledge to create healthy, supportive learning and care environments.
- Be prepared to collaborate with allied professionals in government, corporate, education, and social service settings.

This program is eligible for the Southeast A+ Scholarship.

Career Planning

Career preparation is part of the mission of Southeast. In fact, more than 90% of Southeast students participate in internships, clinical opportunities, student teaching, research assistantships, and study abroad.

More than 90% of child development graduates obtain employment or enroll in graduate study.

Professional career counselors are available for all students. The Office of Career Services in Academic Hall 057 can provide students with professional career counseling, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities, and more.

Demonstrated Career Proficiency is a Requirement of all Southeast Students
CL001/CL002	First Semester	Complete the FOCUS2 assessment and develop a Career Action Plan.
CL003	Junior Year	Students gain information about career planning and job searching resources.
CL004	Senior Year	Students demonstrate advanced proficiency by identifying a position in their field, developing a cover letter, and tailoring a resume for the position. Materials are critiqued to ensure preparedness for a successful job search.
