

Bachelor of Science in Education (BSED)

English Education

Our English Education program includes 42 hours in English literature, language, and writing courses. We prepare our students to teach their content successfully. In addition, our majors must complete 41 hours in education courses including 19 credit hours in field experiences off campus at secondary schools.

English Education Majors

- Our majors will have the opportunity to have three field experiences in secondary schools with mentor teachers before their last semester.
- During the last semester, the student teaching field experience lasts sixteen weeks at one school.
- The Techniques of Teaching English course is taught by an instructor with a successful public school career.
- Our teacher candidates are encouraged to attend professional development events including the Southeast Missouri English Teachers Association and Write To Learn Conferences, where they have met English Education experts including Kyleen Beers and Jim Burke.

Career Planning

Career preparation is part of the mission of Southeast. 100% of programs offer our students an internship, study-abroad program, clinical opportunity, student teaching or research internship.

Most of our English Education graduates are teaching in public and private secondary schools in Missouri and Illinois.

The Office of Career Services in Academic Hall 057 can provide students with professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities, and more.

Internship and Employment Opportunities for Graduates

- Our graduates are teaching in Southeast Missouri secondary schools including Scott County Central, Poplar Bluff, Charleston, and Sikeston. Graduates are also teaching in local high schools including Notre Dame Catholic High, Jackson, Cape Central, and the Cape Central Academy. Ste. Genevieve, Fredricktown, and DeSoto High Schools have also recently chosen our English Education graduates. In the St. Louis area, school districts including Francis Howell, Kirkwood, and Pattonville have employed our teacher candidates.
- One of our majors currently teaching at Cape Central was chosen as an MACTE Outstanding Beginning Teacher in the state of Missouri.
- In addition, our graduates have been accepted into Masters programs including those at St. Louis University and Southern Illinois University.
- Some graduates choose to stay at Southeast to pursue their Masters degrees in English and work in our department as teaching assistants.

Admission Requirements

- 42 course hours completed
- 2.75 cumulative GPA
- Missouri Educator Profile (MEP) results on file with the Office of the Associate Dean of the College of Education
- Score of 220 or higher on all sections of the Missouri General Education Assessment (MoGEA)
