

Mass Communication: Multimedia Journalism Option

Bachelor of Science (BS)

Multimedia Journalism Option

Creating content, establishing contacts, and maintaining connections with an ever-changing audience is the key to working in today's media industry. Southeast's Department of Mass Media prepares students to enter this fast-paced field through a combination of innovative curriculum design, access to dedicated faculty who successfully combine both professional skill sets and academic credentials, and experiential learning opportunities. Students select from one of four options to specialize in: advertising, multimedia journalism, public relations, or TV/film.

ACEJMC

The Department of Mass Media is one of the largest on Southeast's campus and one of 119 programs accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications (ACEJMC).

Multimedia Journalism students will...

- Be required to have a MacBook laptop computer for use in the classroom during class time for departmental classes that are at the 300-level and above.
- Learn to create dynamic news content and visuals for delivery across multiple media platforms.
- Interact with qualified, veteran media professionals in small class environments.
- Develop production skills using industry-standard software.
- Obtain real-world experience working for our award-winning student media.
- Have opportunities for professional publication with local media partners, including the Southeast Missourian newspaper and KRCU 90.0 FM, Southeast's National Public Radio affiliate.

Career Planning

Career preparation is part of the mission of Southeast. 100% of programs offer our students an internship, study-abroad program, clinical opportunity, student teaching or research internship.

The Office of Career Services in Academic Hall 057 can provide students with professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities, and more.

Transfer and Dual Credit Students
