

Bachelor of Science in Education (BSED)

German Education

The College of Education, Health, and Human Studies creates a supportive climate to help all education majors meet the rigor of teacher education. Students have the opportunity to participate in Tomorrow's Teachers Learning Community which links cohort learning and living opportunities. Students also receive support in preparation for the entrance exam required for admission. We currently offer 27 undergraduate licensure programs and options for advanced licensure, as well. Students say the learning community and cohort structure of our programs encourage a strong bond with peers and increased success across the program.

Becoming Career Ready ...

/ German Education students participate in multiple field experiences in local classrooms in order to become experienced, well-versed and confident educators.

/ B.S. in Education students work in communication, cultural arts, travel and museum industries and government agencies. Job titles include teacher, court interpreter, bilingual counselor, archivist, customs/immigrations officer and flight attendant.

/ Full-time faculty with experience in the classroom work closely with students as their primary instructors.

/ German Education students learn from faculty who integrate technology into the curriculum with a one-to-one instructional model.

/ Study abroad opportunities in Germany include short-term trips or full-term exchanges which help students develop valuable career skills, strengthen adaptability and broaden perspectives.

/ Through joining student organizations, students gain leadership experience.

/ 100% of Southeast programs offer our students an internship, study-abroad program, clinical opportunity, student teaching or research internship.

/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills to jobs and opportunities in the field. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.

Transfer and Dual Credit Students

If you have dual credit or transfer credit, please visit our transfer course equivalencies guide at semo.edu/transfercredit.

Education Outlook

- Students secure teaching positions across the state of Missouri.
- High needs areas of teacher licensure include: math, science, special education, foreign language, English language learners.
- Placement rates are high for alumni.
- First year teachers report feeling well prepared by Southeast Missouri State University on our annual survey of first-year teachers.

Admission Requirements

- 42 credit hours completed
- 2.75 cumulative GPA
- One of the following: 1) Composite/Superscore of 20 or higher on the ACT exam; 2) Passing scores on all sections of the Missouri General Education Assessment (MoGEA); or 3) A 4-year degree from an accredited college/university

Additional Information

The state of Missouri has high expectations for future educators. Students matriculating into education programs must meet the following standards to be recommended for licensure following degree completion.

Students must maintain a 2.75 cumulative GPA and a 3.0 GPA in both the area of content expertise and pedagogy courses. In addition, students must pass the MO Content Exam and the MO Educator Evaluation System for recommendation for licensure. Students must also fulfill other assessments such as a dispositions profile and be cleared through an FBI background check.

Special Options with Secondary Education

Southeast offers a Master of Arts in Secondary Education: Educational Studies or Educational Technology.

Retroactive Credit

A student who completes a foreign language course beyond the 100-level with a grade of C or better may apply for Retroactive Credit for courses bypassed in the language sequence (i.e. 100, 120, 200, 220). A student may receive a combination of Retroactive Credit and/or AP or transfer credit for prerequisite courses up to a maximum of 9 hours. For example, a student who enrolls in a 220 course as the first course taken at the University and completes that course with a "C" or better may apply for 9 retroactive credits for 100, 120 and 200.
