The Pre-Physical Therapy/Occupational Therapy Option to the Health Sciences degree is tailored to those students planning on applying to graduate program in one of these disciplines. While students graduating with this degree are not limited to this one option, the focus of the program is to satisfy the common pre-requisites for physical therapy and occupational graduate programs. In addition to meeting pre-requisites and providing a scientific background for a graduate program, the students are introduced to assessment techniques and therapeutic techniques which will be a part of their professional education.

Some programs will have unique prerequisites; therefore students are encouraged to visit the websites of the American Physical Therapy Association (apta.org) or the American Occupation Therapy Association (aota.org) to identify pre-requisites for a school they may wish to attend.

Becoming Career Ready...

/ Health Science: PT/OT graduates will satisfy potential pre-requisites for professional graduate education.

/ Students in the major will be introduced to assessment techniques which will be part of their professional education while completing the undergraduate program.

/ Faculty work closely with students so graduates have a working knowledge of therapeutic modalities and skills in application of the modalities.

/ Students are prepared to enter a number of other allied health fields if they should decide against physical or occupational therapy careers. Examples of job titles include medical/health services manager, health informatics specialist and public health officer.

/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills to jobs and opportunities in the field. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.
