Creating content, establishing contacts, and maintaining connections with an ever-changing audience is the key to working in today’s media industry. Southeast’s Department of Mass Media prepares students to enter this fast-paced field through a combination of innovative curriculum design, access to dedicated faculty who successfully combine both professional skill sets and academic credentials, and experiential learning opportunities. Students select from one of four options to specialize in: advertising, multimedia journalism, public relations or TV/film.

The Department of Mass Media is one of the largest on Southeast’s campus and one of 117 programs accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications (ACEJMC).

Becoming Career Ready...

THE HOLLAND COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA PREPARES YOU TO EARN A LIVING “DOING WHAT YOU LOVE TO DO.”

/ Qualified, veteran advertising professionals interact with students in small class environments.
/ Advertising graduates work in advertising, communication and marketing industries. Examples of job titles include advertising director, creative director, advertising manager, account executive and media director.
/ Students have the opportunity to use a MacBook laptop computer in the classroom during class time for departmental classes that are at the 300-level and above (MacBook laptop purchase required).
/ Advertising majors learn to create and develop imaginative messages and images to position and promote products, services and ideas.
/ Students gain proficiency in the areas of advertising writing, design, research, strategy, digital and social media and campaign planning for online, print and broadcast media.
/ Graduates of the program develop multimedia production skills using industry-standard software.
/ 100% of Southeast programs offer a real-world experience. Advertising students gain this experience working as copywriters, graphic designers, digital media strategists and brand communication managers for Southeast’s student-run agency, Southeast Creative.
/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills in the arts to jobs and opportunities in the industry. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.
