

Bachelor of General Studies (BGS)

General Studies (Online)

Southeast's Bachelor of General Studies allows you to individually structure your degree program to fit your interests and goals, without requiring you to choose a major in a specific field. You can build a degree with your own area of focus and, unlike traditional majors, the Bachelor of General Studies program allows you to switch to another area of study with a minimum amount of additional course work.

Students may increase their focus on a particular discipline by completing an official minor along with the general studies degree, but selecting a minor is not required of students.

Becoming Career Ready...

/ Bachelor of General Studies students complete the General Education program as part of a foundational, educational component of their degree.

/ Students choose their degree courses, including 39 hours of upper-division courses, to support their professional and personal goals.

/ Students in the program prepare themselves for career advancement or graduate school through successfully completing a curriculum focused on demonstrating college-level competencies.

/ Academic departments at Southeast offer real-world experience. 100% of our programs offer students an internship, study-abroad program, clinical opportunity, or research internship.

/ Students may choose life-changing study-abroad in semester exchange programs or in short-term, two-week programs.

/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests, and skills to jobs and opportunities in the field. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities, and more.

Why Consider the BGS?

The Bachelor of General Studies is ideal for degree-seekers with one or more of the following characteristics:

- College credits from multiple institutions
- Students with experience in several areas of study or majors
- Students interested primarily in earning a four-year degree, without a requirement for, or interest in, a specific major
- Students seeking a degree for personal enrichment
- Students unable to finish another major because of changing life circumstances but who want to earn a bachelor's degree to complete their undergraduate experience

About Our Online Programs

At Southeast, if a program is designated as an online degree, you can complete your degree anywhere, without ever having to come to one of our campuses. As a student in an online class, your faculty will be the same faculty who teach in our campus classrooms. Advising for online programs and other support services are all completed online by staff who specialize in serving distance students.

Special Options with Major

This program of study is also available to students on the main campus and to students at the regional campuses (Kennett and Sikeston).

Transfer and Dual Credit Students

If you have dual credit or transfer credit, please visit our transfer course equivalencies guide at semo.edu/transfercredit.

To learn more
Southeast Online
(573) 651-2766
southeastonline@semo.edu
online.semo.edu

To explore
all online degree options,
visit online.semo.edu

For advising
Phone: (573) 651-2766
Fax: (573) 651-2859
southeastonline@semo.edu
online.semo.edu

