WHY BECOME A FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCES TEACHER? It is the aim of FCS courses that all students increase their ability to act responsibly and productively, work cooperatively, apply concepts of balancing school/work and family, create solutions to critical and emergent issues, utilize technology effectively in personal and family settings and maintain healthy lifestyles. FCS education provides the bridge needed by all students to deal with life and career issues (*AAFCS Rationale).

Students completing the Bachelor of Science in Family & Consumer Sciences Education program at Southeast Missouri State University receive a K-12 certification, and are trained to teach a variety of different subject matters such as:

- Child Development
- Family and Personal Relationships
- Foods and Nutrition
- Clothing Construction and Fashion
- Interior Design

Becoming Career Ready...

Family & Consumer Science education majors have the opportunity to have three field experiences in secondary schools with mentor teachers before their last semester. These opportunities help students to become experienced, well-versed and confident educators.

During the last semester, the student teaching field experience lasts sixteen weeks at one school.

Family & Consumer Science education majors are encouraged to participate in regional FCCLA events from a leader’s perspective.

Students in the major learn from specialists in all of the areas of Family & Consumer Sciences education.

100% of Southeast programs offer a real-world experience. Family & Consumer Science education students experience this through multiple field experiences in local classrooms. In addition, there are student teaching opportunities abroad.

The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills to jobs and opportunities in the field. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.

Practicum Experiences and Employment Opportunities

Family & Consumer Sciences Education students are placed in diverse situations to give them experience teaching the widest possible range of ages:

- Kindergarten
- Elementary
- Middle School
- High School
- Extension/Adult Education

Currently, demand for Family & Consumer Sciences teachers at the middle school and high school level is very high. The majority of our Family & Consumer Sciences Education majors receive offers of employment even before graduation!
