Title of Course Advance Practicum Intervention Models Revised _____

New X

I. Catalog Description and Credit Hours of Course:

Supervised practicum implementing intervention models for learners' experiencing literacy difficulty within school settings, collecting data documenting children's progress over time. 3 credit hours

II. Prerequisite (s): El 682

III. Purposes or Objectives of the Course:

The graduate student will demonstrate a knowledge base and skills necessary to:

- A. Understand major theories and empirical research that describe the cognitive, linguistic, motivational and sociocultural foundations of reading and writing development, processes, and components, including word recognition, language comprehension, strategic knowledge, and reading-writing connections
- B. Understand the role of professional judgment and practical knowledge for improving all students' reading development and achievement
- D. Use appropriate and varied instructional approaches, including those that develop word recognition language comprehension, strategic knowledge, and reading-writing connections.
- F. Recognize, understand, and value the forms of diversity that exist in society and their importance in learning to read and write.
- G. Design a social environment that is low-risk and includes choice, motivation, and scaffold support to optimize students' opportunities for learning to read and write.
- H. Display positive dispositions related to their own reading and writing and the teaching of reading and writing, and pursue the development of individual professional knowledge and behaviors.

IV. Student Learning Outcomes

The graduate student will:

- A. Design and implement effective lessons based on good decision-making and knowledge of Literacy development.
- B. Collect, organize and share data from assessments and lessons with stakeholders.
- C. Teach an intervention group in an interactive session with peers/colleagues: clinical experience cluster visit, or video analysis supporting effective teamwork and partnerships in order to facilitate student learning.

V. Expectations of Students:

- A. Complete all assignments and actively participate in class activities, projects, and discussions with a high level of commitment.
- B. Accomplish thoughtful and critical analyses of the assigned material.
- C. Perform graduate-level work with mature and professional integrity.
- D. Analyze, synthesize and evaluate strategies, materials, and activities that have a common instructional relevance for children with diverse needs.

VI. Course Content or Outline (Indicate number of class hours per unit or section):

The class is designed to promote constructive interactions among candidates, including whole group instruction, small group interactions, and individual conferences.

- A. Intervention Options for struggling learners (6 hours)
- B. Layering intervention models (3 hours)
- C. Determining effective intervention (5 hours)
- D. Intervention and Literacy Teams as Decision-making mechanisms (6 hours)
- E. Evaluating Intervention Effectiveness (3 hours)
- F. Differentiation within Intervention (6 hours)
- G. Grouping Options (3 hours)
- H. Teaching for strategic reading and writing (10 hours)
- I. Reflective and responsive teaching (3 hours)

VII. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials or Equipment:

VIII. Basis for Student Evaluation:

The graduate student will:

Assignment	Percentage	Due Date
Teach a struggling student in a small group intervention (either Guided Reading Plus or Comprehension Focus Group) and collect evidence of the student's progress over time. Then use these data to write an Intervention Report on the student with diagnostic interpretations and specific recommendations.	33.333 (1/3 of grade)	During semester
Design an Intervention Portfolio for the student. Create a Table of Contents for the following sections: I) Description of Response to Intervention (see assignment 4); II) Definitions of Assessments and Intervention Components; III) Assessment Profile (including screening, diagnostic summary, plan of action, intervention team meetings, progress monitoring, informal, and exit data); IV) Instructional Records and Teaching Decisions; and V) Intervention Report with Specific Recommendations.	33.333 (1/3 of grade)	Beginning During semester
Arrange to teach an intervention group for your peers in a clinical setting (cluster visit in a school, video lesson, or Behind the Glass).	33.333 (1/3 of grade)	Mid Semester

Note: The weight of the evaluation criteria may vary according to each instructor and will be communicated at the beginning of the course.

IX. Grading Scale

100-90%= A
89-80% = B
79-70% = C
69% and below= F

X. Academic Policy Statement:

Academic honesty is one of the most important qualities influencing the character and vitality of Southeast Missouri State University. Academic misconduct or dishonesty is inconsistent with membership in an academic community and cannot be accepted. Violations of academic honesty represent a serious breach of discipline and may be considered grounds for disciplinary action, including dismissal from the University. Academic dishonesty is defined to include those acts which would deceive, cheat, or defraud so as to promote or enhance one's scholastic record. Knowingly or actively assisting any person in the commission of an above-mentioned act is also academic dishonesty. Students are responsible for upholding the principles of academic honesty in accordance with the "University Statement of Student Rights" found in the STUDENT HANDBOOK. The University requires that all assignments submitted to faculty members by students be the work of the individual student submitting the work. An exception would be group projects assigned by the instructor. In this situation, the work must be that of the group. Academic dishonesty includes: Plagiarism and Cheating.

XI. Student with Disabilities:

Southeast Missouri State University and Disability Support Services remain committed to making every possible educational accommodation for students with disabilities. Many services and accommodations which aid a student's educational experience are available for students with various types of disabilities. It is the student's responsibility to contact Disability Support Services to become registered as a student with a disability. Accommodations are implemented on a case by case basis. For more information visit the following site: <http://www6.semo.edu/lapdss/index.htm>

XII. Civility and Harassment

The University strives to offer learning experiences and opportunities designed to help students think effectively, develop the capacity to communicate, discriminate among values, and make relevant judgments. A major determinant of a successful educational experience is a shared sense of respect among and between the students and their instructor. Mutual respect for all as well as a no tolerance policy on harassment of any kind is expected. Every student at Southeast is obligated at all times to assume responsibility for his/her actions, to respect constituted authority, to be truthful, and to respect the rights of others, as well as to respect private and public property.
