

COURSE SYLLABUS

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Department of Theatre and Dance

Course No: DA 290

Course: Practicum in Dance Techniques II

New: Spring 2002

I. Catalog Description:

Directed individual study of selected dance techniques. Course will be graded on a Pass/Fail basis. (2)

II. Prerequisite:

Consent of instructor

III. Objectives of the Course:

To provide students with the opportunity to train specific dance techniques in a more thorough and in-depth manner than, because of curricular limitations, may be treated in other courses.

IV. Expectations of Students are:

Each student is expected to propose a specific dance style/technique for in-depth study and, with the instructor, develop a course of study that the student will fulfill.

V. Course Content or Outline:

There is no specific format for this course. The student will consult with his instructor to formulate a methodology appropriate to the specific dance style/technique he/she wishes to study.

VI. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials or Equipment:

There is no specific textbook for this course. Student will be expected to become thoroughly acquainted with the literature as it pertains to his/her selected area of study.

VII. Basis for Student Evaluation:

Quality and thoroughness of student work.