V. Course Content or Outline:

The plan for experiential learning will be developed and approved by the representatives of the sponsoring organization and the Department of Management and Marketing in consultation with the student. The plan will include a variety of managerial activities and provide the student a broad view of the responsibilities of the manager to whom the student is assigned. The content of the experiential learning plan should be consistent with the Department of Management and Marketing Internship Program Guidelines.

VI. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials or Equipment:

None

VII. Basis for Student Evaluation:

The student's performance will be determined by the faculty representative of the Department of Management and Marketing mentoring the internship. The final grade will be based on; 1) evaluation of the internship experience submitted by the sponsoring organization and 2) evaluation by the faculty representative of the written final report (document) and/or oral presentation by the student to the faculty. The internship will be graded on a pass/fail credit basis.
