

COURSE SYLLABUS FORMAT
Southeast Missouri State University

Department of Communication

Course No. SC 482

Title of Course: Special Problems in Communication Studies

Revision

New XXX

I. Catalog Description and Credit Hours of Course:

A seminar designed for in-depth study and research of a specific aspect of communication studies. Content varies (1-3 hours) depending on topic. Students may receive credit for a maximum of nine (9) credit hours as long as the content area is not repeated.

II. Prerequisite (s):

A minimum of 75 hours or permission of Department Chair.

III. Purposes or Objective of the Course:

- A. To provide students with an overview of and investigation into a specific topic in communication studies.

IV. Expectations of Students:

- A. To attend all class sessions and complete all assignments.

V. Course Content or Outline (Indicate number of class hours per unit or section):

- A. Course Content will vary by topic. Sixteen hours per section is required for 1 credit hour.

VI. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials or Equipment:

- A. Textbooks and materials will vary, depending upon the instructor and topic.

VII. Basis for Student Evaluation:

- A. Assignments to be determined by the instructor.
- B. Class participation.
- C. Final Exam or final project.