General Business

- St. Francis Medical Center system physicians are considered out-of-network providers as of July 1; negotiations are ongoing but stalled.
- Midyear performance appraisals are beginning June 15 and continuing through next month.
- Salary Equity study results are being reviewed; announcements regarding potential increases pending.
- PSC will use a Teams page for members going forward; information will be posted on the Teams bulletin board and uploaded into the files section.
- Marketing will be working from home throughout remote period.
- New Student Programs and Admissions are returning to campus in opposing shifts to keep spacing optimal.
- Advancement is back in their office space working at full force; Trudy Lee named VP of Development through 2022.
- Advising will be back at full staff next Monday, but will be conducting appointments via zoom or phone; possible face-to-face appointments by the end of the month; appointments are also being held at shorter intervals.
- Student Financial Services will not return to campus until July 1; there will be a phased reopening with some alternating shifts; phones are being answered 8am-4pm; new system has experienced a few glitches; call volumes are increasing.
- Rec Services has been back for a month; employees are wearing masks; patrons are not required to wear masks while working out, but advised to do so while moving around in facility; heightened hygiene routines are in place; equipment is disinfected after every use; intramural fields are open for use; shared equipment is now allowed in the Rec; personal training being conducted virtually; Redhawk Kids Club sessions begin next week with daily screening of participants; small group of participants is expected; SEMO has the only college Rec Center open in the state of Missouri.

- Academic Support Services still at distance, though the administrative assistants are back in their offices; tutoring services are suspended for summer; fall semester plans are unsure at this time.
- Kent Library staff have been back for a month, but the facility is not open to the public; drive-thru checkout services are available; plan is to be open to students by the end of the month, but with limitations.
- Counseling Services is being reorganized.
- There are questions and concerns about how the University will deal with Labor Day, both from the student and employee standpoints.
